Ridleyton Greek Home for the Aged is a Commonwealth funded facility providing the highest quality care for elderly South Australians from a diverse range of cultural backgrounds.

We provide a safe and secure environment for people to live with dignity and independence while maintaining close ties to their country of birth.

Residents enjoy a range of recreational and community activities in a friendly environment, respectful of their needs and sensitive to their cultural and religious beliefs.

Our trained and qualified staff are experts in assessing and managing the individual care requirements of all residents to ensure they receive the highest standard of personal care and support.
